

Andrew Dexter Property Maintenance Services

Established in 2004 and based in Sacombe, I provide a comprehensive range of property maintenance services throughout Hertfordshire and North London for private households, letting agents/landlords, insurance companies and commercial businesses.

I am fully insured and undertake projects big and small including internal/external decorating, the refitting of bathrooms, en-suites and kitchens and garden landscaping. I also provide a handyman service for general odd jobs and maintenance around the house and garden.

I am TrustMark accredited through Hertfordshire Trading Standards. TrustMark is a Government backed initiative to help consumers find reliable and trustworthy tradesmen to carry out work inside and outside of the home.
