

August 10 2017

Welcome to your community newsletter put together by the East Herts Council communications team.

Local events, meetings, news, jobs and community activities

Come and try gentle friendly activities for 50+

This Saturday (12), Birchwood School

Yoga, Zumba, Tai Chi and walking football are just some of the gentle activities on offer at Saturday's free Come and Try day in Bishops Stortford.

Have your say on the future of our pools and gyms

East Herts Council is investing 30m into its leisure facilities to ensure they continue to provide an attractive and sustainable offer across the district for years to come.

To have your say, visit www.eastherts.gov.uk/consultations

Council chairman's charity golf day

The chairman of East Herts Council visited Hanbury Manor Golf Club in Ware to launch his Charity Golf Day in aid of Essex & Herts Air Ambulance.

It's at Hanbury Manor on September 29 and chairman Jeff Jones is looking for teams of four to join him for what promises to be a great day of golf on a championship course.

Future plans for Pishiobury Park

We're working on a new five-year plan for the Sawbridgeworth Park, together with Countryside Management Service.

See the initial plans and make your comments.

Visit our news page for the latest stories

Planning applications

See the latest planning applications and make your comments too.

Job vacancies

Check out the latest job vacancies at East Herts Council.

Got any comments, suggestions, questions or non-profit-making events in East Herts that you'd like to appear in Network? Let us know at communications@eastherts.gov.uk

Follow @EastHerts on Twitter

Like East Herts Council on Facebook

